

Caregivers Under Trial: A Global Forum on Mothers Facing Detention and Their Children

DAY ONE SCHEDULE

Inaugural Address

Olivia Rope

Executive Director
Penal Reform International

Keynote Address

Justice Vikram Nath

Justice of the Indian Supreme Court
& Executive Chairman, National Legal Services Authority of India

What Happens to Children When Mothers are Arrested and Detained?

Pushpa Basnet, Founder & President, Early Childhood Development Center, Nepal

Miaomiao He, PhD Candidate, Monash University, Australia

Reena Jaiswar, Social Worker, Prayas and Member, Child Welfare Committee, India

Considering Caregiving in Bail Decisions

Medha Deo, Director, Fair Trial Programme, The Square Circle Clinic, India

Maya Sikand, Senior Counsel, Doughty Street Chambers, England

Justice Anoop Chitkara, Judge of the Punjab & Haryana High Court, India

Supporting Children Separated by Undertrial Detention

Monica Dhawan, Director, India Vision Foundation, India

Se Chhin, Deputy Director, This Life, Cambodia

K.R. Raja, Co-Founder, Global Network for Equality, India

Person with Lived Experience

Screening of Prayas Documentary Film ‘Bikhare Risthe’ and discussion with Director Ms Malati Rao

DAY TWO SCHEDULE

Mothers and Children Living Together Inside Prisons

Ambika Satkunanathan, Human Rights Advocate, Sri Lanka

Smita Dharmamer, Associate Director, Aangan Trust, India

Rachna Narwekar, Founder, Rachna's Funclub & Rachna's Funclub Foundation, India

Person with Lived Experience

Emerging Research and Global Best Practices

Joshua Page, Professor of Sociology, Law & Public Affairs, University of Minnesota, United States

Surekha Bhagwan Kusum Sale, Assistant Director, Prayas, India

Sharli Mudaliyar, PhD Scholar, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, India

Children of Incarcerated
Caregivers

